THE . EARTH'S . BEST.

Our motto is proven by victories won, as birds in our yards have won in Boston, New York, Chicago, Denver, Pueblo and Cheyenne.

The White Langshans

In their purity. The best known strains.

Keesling Mottled Langshans,

Beauties, and quite rare.

MAMMOTH LIGHT BRAHMAS.

We have the largest sized and most vigorous breeders of this grand fowl in America.

BUFF LEGHORNS,

Direct from England by Mr. A. D. Arnold. No stock or eggs from these until November.

Our S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS — Knapp Strain — are sure winners and never beaten.

S. C. BROWN LEGHORNS. Beauties and high scoring.

BARRED - PLYMOUTH - ROCKS.

Pen No. 1 — Thompson strain — is headed by Sweepstakes, Jr. This grand bird tied for first in the late Crystal Palace show in New York and lacked only one ounce in weight of winning first. Pens Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5 are Hawkins strain and fine ones.

Our B. B. RED GAME BANTAMS take first wherever shown.

Ninety-two acres for yards and runs. A National Reputation, as we have sold and shipped to sixteen different states during the past season. IF YOU MEAN BUSINESS and want either reasonable price, expensive or show birds, write us and we can and will satisfy you on what you want.

POULTRY IS KING!

The Poultry crop of the United States is now three millions greater than the corn crop in dollars and cents, therefore, Poultry is King, and it is a very profitable business if properly conducted, and one of the best poultry papers to assist you to conduct it properly is a bright, crisp, clean, eight-page monthly Journal, costing only 25 cents per year, or 3 months on trial for one silver dime. It is each month crammed full of interesting reading matter upon all poultry topics. It is such a good little paper that every one takes it that sees it.

THE POULTRY NEWS,

As an advertising medium for breeders it is unexcelled. Its rates are fair and its "pulling" qualities great. A free sample copy will be sent to all who apply.

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA.

The oldest, largest, finest illustrated and most practical magazine of its kind in Iowa. Reaches the largest number of FANCIERS and BUYERS of Poultry and Pet Stock in the West.

READ WHAT OUR PATRONS SAY:

The March number just received. Allow me to congratulate you on the marked improvement it has shown in the last three months. It is getting to be what the Iowa breeders need, and should be well patronized by them. My Langshans are doing finely; an entirely sold out of stock. Have had to refuse over $500 worth of orders since Jan. 1, and I charge the JOURNAL with having a great deal to do with it. — JOHN M. PARKER, Iowa.

Your valuable journal has benefited me more than any other Journal I have advertised in this season. — A. H. HARBAUGH, Ohio.

Long live the WESTERN POULTRY JOURNAL; am hearing from my ad. already. — DR. C. T. WIANT, Ohio.

I have had several orders through your paper lately. Think you are improving it very much. — MRS. M. A. SMITH, Ohio.

Enclosed find change for ad. Langshan cockerels all sold. We find it pays to advertise in the WESTERN POULTRY JOURNAL. — E. J. TINKER, Iowa.

I want to say for JOURNAL that as an advertising medium it is ahead of anything I ever tried. — C. C. HARPER, Ills.
